

Training Program on NERDC Cost Effective Building Technology

Recently NERDC held a 4 days training programme on NERDC Cost Effective Building Technology for the participants nominated by the Ministry of Science, Technology & Research, Skills Development, Vocational Training and Kandyan Heritage. 20

Participants representing few Vidatha centres, participated for the programme and this was held from 20th to 23rd of August 2018.

The main objectives of this training was by disseminating the knowledge of NERDC Cost Effective Technology among the small scale self employers in construction industry and enhancing the capacity of them to uplift their own practices up to industry standards.

dp/22/01/17